109 Mill Street

Deed Reference:156/68

This house was built in 1895 by George and Elizabeth Massey in the vernacular style of the time. The structure is similar to many of the houses on Oakley, Locust and William Streets, and is typical of middle-class residences built in Cambridge around 1900. The house is not significant from a historical point of view. Architecturally, it contributes to the predominately turn of the century character of Mill Street.
